DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Barre Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Barre endorsement. Read the statements of Barre citizens. And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:—
M. L. Spaulding, painter, 16 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I had more or less kidney trouble for four or five years and I think it was the result of the conditions to which I am subject at my work. At night my back ached terribly and I could not sleep well. There were dark spots before my eyes at times and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions plainly proved that my kidneys were at fault. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Doan's drug store, disposed of all these troubles, and I have only had to take this remedy once since then. At that time I found prompt relief from an attack of lumbago. I take pleasure at all times in vouching for the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I gladly confirm the public statement I gave in their favor some three years ago."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Death of Former Townswoman, Mrs. Elizabeth Beckett Martin.

Before us as we write is a Watseka, Ill., paper of the 13th inst., containing a very interesting and kindly notice of the death on the 8th of this month, of our former townswoman, Elizabeth, the oldest child of the late Capt. William S. Beckett, and widow of the late Lieut. James P. Martin, the oldest son of a long ago, well-known and prominent townswoman, the late Col. Porter Martin. Mrs. Martin died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Martin, and was in her 81st year. Mrs. Martin was married here in February, 1855, and soon after her husband went to Will county, Ill. For a few years Mr. Martin was engaged in trade; but when the Civil war broke out in 1861 he was one of the first to enlist in his country's service. Mr. Martin died in 1868, leaving a widow and five children, the youngest a mere babe. Very high tribute is paid Mrs. Martin in the Watseka paper mentioned for the manner in which she met the trials incident to the war and those of the early years of her widowhood, with her quite large family of children. In fact, says this paper, "she was cheery and bright, to the very last day of her life, thoroughly alive to every human interest, and she never seemed like an old woman." At the end, death came rather suddenly. At her funeral all but one of her children were present, as were her two sisters, Mrs. Emily Beckett Edginton and Mrs. Mary Beckett Simons, now of Washington, Ia. Of the Beckett family, besides these two daughters, three sons survive: George Beckett of this place, James M. Beckett of Washington, D. C. We quote but a single passage more from the obituary before us: "She had a keen sympathy and a large interest in the lives of others, and her great heart went out to the sick and suffering, the poor and needy, and in the days of her strong young womanhood there was scarcely a family for miles around, who, when trouble and sickness came, didn't send for her." We love to think that many such good women have gone out into the world from Williamstown, to cheer and bless it.

Ice formed here a few mornings ago on water just outside of some houses.

An organ is about to be placed in the grammar department of our graded school.

L. F. Bailey returned to Hardwick on his motorcycle Friday last, after a visit of a week with the family of Isaac Reor.

An autoist from farther up the state—some forty miles—recently told us that our Williamstown roads are among the very best he finds in the state.

Mrs. Herbert P. Martin has just returned to her home in our village, after a stay of weeks in the family of her son, Dr. Lewis D. Martin of Barre City.

Solon Patterson, whose long life in Colorado makes him prefer that state to even his native state of Vermont, hopes to return to Colorado early in June next.

Horace M. Farnham rides out here occasionally with his handsome $2,500 automobile—a Rambler. One day this week, with a party of friends, he rode 180 miles in it.

George, son of the late Elbert G. Jackson, was called home last of the week from the vicinity of Kennebunk, Maine, by the death and burial of his father. He will soon return to his home.

Our census-taker does wish that all our farmers, to whom she sends schedules used in her work, would be willing to fill them out before she gets to their homes, since it would save her so much time.

The family of Mrs. Elbert G. Jackson appreciate warmly the kindnesses of neighbors and friends, as shown at the time of the recent death and funeral of husband and father, and wish to express to all their sincere thanks.

The ladies of the grange wish to announce that supper will be served in their dining hall Monday evening, after the concert, and another will be served still later for the dancers. Concert by Gilbertson's orchestra from 5 to 9.

Personally, we do not recall ever having heard of the late J. K. Lynde's being "dumped" on to the ground, in all his riding, only as he was once riding in the auto, now owned by farmer Albert H. Norris. But—that "history" was made under a previous ownership.

In correction of a mistake in our item of Thursday last, and a mistake of our own making, it was Miss Arlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jeffords, who was lately given the surprise party, etc., by our high school scholars, instead of her older sister, who is a "ruby," indeed, by common consent here.

A letter written us last Tuesday from one of the northern tier of counties in Indiana tells us that fruit trees, lilacs and flowers were in bloom; and that fully four inches snow of the above eight inches that had fallen—were on the ground that day. The limbs of trees were bending to the ground under the weight of snow. The latitude of that county, Elkhart, is about the same as that of New Haven, Conn.

Now that progression is to be the order of the day here, under the leadership of our W. P. A., we would set down as one of our drawing cards a fact, given us only a day or two ago, by a man who has lived here now some ten years, and who thinks he had had valuable experience in some other Vermont towns. He reckons our citizens as among the most desirable ones to live among that he has ever found. "Surely that should be a big consideration for people who may ever be solicited to come here."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Busy Week Promised at the Barre Opera House.

"You can see what we are up against," said Manager Hoban, of the Barre opera house yesterday afternoon. "We haven't had a show booked since early April, and now they are piling in on us. With the exception of Monday night we have all next week filled with dates. Last night and to-night."

There is such a wide diversity in kinds of performances next week that every taste ought to be gratified.

"The Climax" Tuesday.

The local lovers of good comedy drama will have an opportunity of gratifying their desire at the opera house on next Tuesday, May 3, when Joseph M. Weber's splendid offering, "The Climax," by Edward Locke, will make its first appearance in this city. "The Climax" has made a most unprecedented hit at Weber's theatre, New York, where it is delighting large and appreciative audiences. The story is one, it is said, that is most likely to live in the memory, as it is based on the fundamental elements of human nature, and appealing to emotions and interests that are universal. The reviewers of the daily press and the leading critics of the metropolis paid glowing tribute to the performance, the play and production.

"The California Girls" Wednesday.

America's largest, best equipped burlesque organization, "The California Girls," will hold forth at the opera house for a night of revelry and song, on Wednesday, May 4, and it's the banner event of the year; 25 artists, mostly girls, in marches, spectacular dances, bright, catchy musical numbers, new up-to-the-minute songs and comedy. Special scenery, elegant and fetching costumes, pretty forms and faces, the New York craze dance, the Apache dance, Helen Russell, comedienne, assisted by her singing and dancing girls; Truheart & Burke, Alice Dillon and her teddy dancers, Baldwin & Wallace, Bell Sisters, dancing whirling and Elmer Mack, the dude soldier. The biggest and best burlesque company ever organized. Why not see the best, and its cost as normal.

Yale Stock Co.

Everybody like "Pete," as Peter Murray, the popular little comedian is usually called, and it will be pleasing news to local theatre goers to learn that Mr. Murray comes to Barre for a three days' engagement at the head of the Yale Stock company commencing Thursday, May 5.

Pete still has the whistle with him and a number of original and unique specialties to offer. The company presents the following plays: "Princess of Patches," "The Travelling Man," "The Country Girl," "How Hopper was Side Tracked." Seats for the engagement go on sale Monday morning. Thursday night will be ladies' night, as customary, when a limited number of choice reserved seats will be sold to feminine patrons at bargain prices.

Cook in Comfort

You no longer need wear yourself out with the weakening heat of an intensely hot kitchen. You can cook in comfort.

Here is a stove that gives no outside heat. All its heat is concentrated at the burners. An intense blue flame (hotter than either white or red) is thrown upwards but not around. All the heat is utilized in cooking—none in outside heating.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove entirely removes the discomfort of cooking. Apply a match and immediately the stove is ready. Instantly an intense heat is projected upwards against the pot, pan, kettle or boiler, and yet there is no surrounding heat—no smell—no smoke.

Why? Because The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove is scientifically and practically perfect. You cannot use too much wick—it is automatically controlled. You get the maximum heat—no smoke. The burner is simple. One wick with a cloth cleans it—consequently there is no smell.

The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove is wonderful for year-round use, but especially in summer. Its heat operates upward to pan, pot, or kettle, but not beyond or around. It is useless for heating a room.

It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot. It has long turquoise-blue enamel chimneys. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

INVESTIGATE YOUR HEALTH!

There are such a nice lot of things to occupy our attention that we frequently forget our health. It would be a good plan if we would all go to our physician every Spring and Fall and find out whether repairs are needed.

We can all tell something about it if we would stop and think, and this is one of the seasons to think. Custom says that blood purifiers are needed in the Spring. They can't harm—they will certainly do some good and may do much good. Our Old Time Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier. Every bottle guaranteed. Price 75c, at
